Best in Cross-Border Restructuring - Singapore

Nexia TS is pleased to announce that it has been awarded 'Best in Cross-Border Restructuring – Singapore' in The Acquisition International Magazine 2015 Tax Awards on 27 January 2015, sponsored by the International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation (IBFD). Based in the UK, the prestigious global awards recognise leaders in their respective fields, and, crucially, are nominated and voted in by their clients, their professional relationships and their peers. The winners' proficiency and their hard work have distinguished them from their competitors and proven them worthy of recognition.

Nexia TS International Tax Consulting Team, through years of experience at international accounting firms, combines a high level of technical skills across a wide range of disciplines with local as well as international tax expertise and a strong commercial sense to provide clients with cost effective cross-border tax planning strategies.

Nathan Angell, Awards Coordinator, The Acquisition International Magazine 2015 Tax Awards, said: “The 2015 Tax Awards recognise the very best in the world of tax. We’re proud to recognise firms, from across the industry, who are leading the way in this often challenging field – and, in the process, helping to keep the wheels of global business turning.”

“Nexia TS is honoured to receive an award of this standing as this prestigious commendation recognises our expertise in an international setting where our professionalism and service quality is above the mark. It is a proud moment, and none of this would have been possible without an excellent team who made it happen.”

Henry Tan
