Nexia TS & Dedoco Collaborate to Establish Blockchain-Based Electronic Signatures

NTSIGN

POWERED BY DEDOCO

Singapore, 17 July 2020 – Nexia TS and Dedoco have signed a Memorandum of Collaboration (MOC) to formalize a mutual framework for cooperation in the digital signature domain, which will see close partnership in the areas of information development, capabilities sharing and business development.

Under the MOC, Dedoco is the Digital Signing partner for Nexia TS group and will oversee the development of the NTSign. The NTSign will register a decentralised audit trail of the signing evidence with blockchain technology. Digital documents are not stored by an external platform in this process, ensuring that it only goes into the hands of the relevant parties. With this technology in place, it gives organisations the confidence of carrying out secure transactions in the digital world.

The MOC was signed on 1 June 2020 by Mr. Henry Tan, Group CEO and Chief Innovation Officer, Nexia TS and Dr. Ernie Teo, Co-Founder, Dedoco.

Mr. Henry Tan Group CEO and Chief Innovation Officer, Nexia TS said, “The COVID-19 pandemic has ushered in a new digital economy. Digitalization and data security are now every companies’ strategic priority. With NTSign, companies can expect faster turnaround, stronger and more enforceable contracts than the average paper-based transactions that can be easily forged.”

Dr. Ernie Teo, Co-Founder, Dedoco, “Dedoco is excited to partner with Nexia TS to bring next generation business tools to their clients. Our aim is to streamline business processes and drive true digitisation, allowing organisations to transact efficiently and safely in the digital world.”
