Singapore, 30 October 2020 – As the main sponsor of the Women's Floorball National team, Nexia TS sends its heartiest congratulations to the team for scoring double on second-time team honours and first-ever female winning coach in history. The Singapore Sports Awards honours the most deserving individuals and teams that shape the Sporting Singapore.

At the awards presentation ceremony held on 28 October, Mr Tan Chuan-Jin, Speaker of Parliament and President of the Singapore National Olympic Council, graced the event as the Guest of Honour to present the awards to both the national team and former national women's floorball coach, Louis Khng, with Mr Edwin Tong, Minister for Culture, Community and Youth.

Despite the competition intensity, the all-women's team has demonstrated cohesiveness, resilience and jesty fighting spirit particularly during the 11 back-to-back matches at the highest levels in 2019.

Mr Henry Tan, Group CEO & Chief Innovation Officer, Nexia TS said, "A stellar coach-and-team relationship instil a sense of trust and confidence that create a strong bond uniting the players to strive as one. Like any businesses looking to make an external social contribution should paradoxically, look inside on how to improve employees' job satisfaction that make a material difference to boost profitability and performances. Our heartiest congratulations to both the national team and Coach Louis for achieving yet another best milestone.”

About Singapore Sports Awards

The Singapore Sports Awards were introduced by the Singapore National Olympic Council in 1968 to recognise the finest achievements of our athletes.

Today, the Awards have evolved to become Singapore's most highly coveted honours for sporting achievements, covering categories which cut across various facets of the sporting ecosystem – from athletes and coaches to event organisers and media.
