Nexia International Becomes Eighth Largest Global Accounting Network

Singapore, 16 March 2021 – Nexia TS, a proud member of Nexia International, is delighted to share news that the leading global network of independent accounting and consulting firm has moved up a notch to be the eighth largest global accounting network according to the latest Accounting Bulletin World Survey.

The survey that is measured by fee income has Nexia reported a total of USD4.5 billion across the network for the year 2020 – an increase of 5 per cent as compared to 2019. The increase in global revenue is a result of consistent organic growth across the network in every region, and its continued global expansion with admission of newer member firms in 2020.

Commenting on the results, Kevin Arnold, CEO of Nexia International, said: "I am extremely pleased that we have moved up into 8th position in global rankings and of the consistent, year on year growth we have achieved over the last ten years. This remarkable achievement reflects the high quality of our member firms and the value they deliver to their clients.

Henry Tan, Group CEO & Chief Innovation Officer, Nexia TS, added, "As a member firm of the Nexia International network, the firm works closely with global member firms to deliver personalised solutions and partner-led service to clients. Our reputation is built on these relationships to be one of the top ten auditing and business consultancy firms in Singapore."
